Indiana Mayors Support Costas for Attorney General

(Valparaiso, IN) – Republican Mayors across the state endorsed Jon Costas today to be Indiana's next Attorney General.

“Jon Costas has been a great mayor and it's important we have state leaders who know how to address the concerns of the people and understand local government,” Marion Mayor Wayne Seybold said. “I know Jon will bring the same energy and efficiency to state government that he's exhibited as Mayor.”

The following Mayors endorsed Jon Costas today:

Jim Brainard – Carmel
Andy Cook – Westfield
John Dennis – West Lafayette
Brad DeReamer – Greenfield
John Ditslear – Noblesville
Scott Ferguson – Shelbyville
John Lasley – Lebanon
Craig Luedeman – Seymour
Sharon McShurley - Muncie
Jeff Rea – Mishawaka
Mark Senter - Plymouth
Wayne Seybold – Marion
Dr. Rob Thoman – Southport
Jason Thompson – Monticello
Larry Thompson – Nappanee
Bob Vanlandingham – Wabash
James Walker – Peru
Ernest Wiggins – Warsaw
Joe Wright – Beech Grove

Costas is currently the Mayor of Valparaiso, serving in his second term.
